Mayor Coleman to Welcome Residents Back to the West Side Flats

Mayor Coleman and Councilmember Dave Thune Join West Side Neighbors in Celebrating the Groundbreaking of a New Urban Village on the West Side Flats

- Who: Mayor Chris Coleman, Councilmember Dave Thune and event partners Friends of the Mississippi River, Riverview Economic Development Association, Saint Paul Riverfront Corporation, Sherman Associates, The Summit Group and West Side Citizens Organization
- What: Community Celebration and Groundbreaking for the West Side Flats Condominiums, a Sherman Associates development. This event marks the return of housing to the Flats for the first time in more than 50 years. It is also an important step in the creation of a new riverside urban village, as outlined in the West Side Flats Master Plan – a community developed and endorsed vision for the West Side Flats, adopted by the Saint Paul City Council in December 2001.
- When: Thursday, October 12, 2006
Noon to 1:00 p.m.
- Where: West Side Flats, at the SE corner of the Wabasha Bridge, behind the former Coca-Cola/Llewellyn Building (free parking available)
- Visuals: Display of historic West Side Flats photos, showing the neighborhood that existed on the Flats more than half-century ago; renderings of West Side Flats condominiums and plans for the new West Side Flats urban village
- Program: Light lunch catered by El Burrito Mercado and Jerabek's Café; Latin guitar by Robert Everest
- Sponsor: Sherman Associates
