Mayor Coleman to Join Elementary Students' Human Chain to Donate Food to Charity

J.J. Hill Montessori School students spend March collecting food for Minnesota Food Share

WHAT: Mayor Chris Coleman will join students from the J.J. Hill Montessori School at 998 Selby Avenue to celebrate their successful food drive to collect donations for Minnesota Food Share. The students wanted to show that kids can make a difference during tough economic times.

To celebrate, the children will have an all-school assembly and then line up from the school to Hallie Q. Brown Food Shelf in a "Human Food Chain" to pass the donated items to the food shelf.
